

“Southesk”

Source: Queensland Maritime Museum

Quarantined 13 May 1882 for Typhoid Fever

10 May 1882 came into harbour, 13 May taken to Peel Island.

391 passengers on a 95 day voyage from Greenock, Scotland.

Dr J I Paddle, surgeon-superintendent on ship to Australia, found the journey difficult for passengers with so much illness on board.

Measles - no deaths; typhoid fever – 13 deaths (out of 26 infections) on journey. More deaths on Peel Island:

13 May - James Thomas McKenzie, 18 months (cause of death severe Bronchitis secondary to WC)

15 May - Robert Rodgers, 2yrs (c.o.d. chronic Bright's disease secondary to TF and WC)

20 May – Margaret Jeffrey, 9 months (c.o.d. bronchitis secondary to WC)

22 May – Elizabeth Annie Edwards, 2 months (c.o.d. bronchitis and diarrhoea secondary to WC)